Heart Health Tips

With Valentine's Day around the corner, we wanted to take a minute to discuss the importance of healthy living and more specifically, your heart health!

Did You Know? 8 out of 10 cases of premature heart disease and stroke are preventable through healthy lifestyle behaviours!

What you can do to live a heart healthy life:

1. Eat Well
Your diet plays a major role in your overall health and wellness. In fact, eating a healthy, balanced diet is one of the most important things you can do to protect your health.
To help lower your risk of heart disease and stroke,
reduce your consumption
of processed foods.
Instead, fill your plate
with fruits and vegetables, whole grains, and protein.

- 2. Get Moving Regular activity helps us sleep better, feel more relaxed, and slows the decline of aging! Additionally, it can dramatically lower your risk of heart disease and stroke. How much exercise do you need? The Heart and Stroke recommends that adults accumulate at least 150 minutes of physical activity per week, in bouts of 10 minutes or more.
- 3. Stop Smoking Tobacco use increases your risk of developing heart disease and stroke.
- 4. Reduce Stress Recognizing and addressing your stressors is an important step.

Behind the Scenes: A Health & Wellness Director

At Seine River
residence in Winnipeg, Health
& Wellness
Director
Krzysztof Szulc
has spent four years making events like
January's Wonka Spirit Week and the ASC Senior Games (ASCSG)
unforgettable for residents.

"Spirit Week is a fun way to beat the winter blues and get tenants excited about the Senior Games in February," Krzysztof explained. Held during the coldest time of the year, Spirit Week and the Games bridge the gap between the holidays and spring, keeping residents engaged and motivated.

Highlights of this year's Spirit Week included a Golden Ticket Gala, featuring a DJ to get everyone dancing, and a chocolate-making activity led by the Chef. The week also included a pep rally to introduce tenant volunteers who will assist during the Games. In February, the ASC Senior Games offer a variety of inclusive and accessible activities, from national medal events like bocce ball and pétanque to trivia and card games, ensuring there's something for everyone.

"It's a big team effort," Krzysztof said, describing the extensive planning, from gathering supplies and crafting decorations to organizing entertainment and snacks. "But seeing the joy it brings to tenants makes it all worthwhile. There's an energy that happens when everyone participates or cheers on their friends—it's magical."

For Krzysztof, the most rewarding part is hearing residents share how much they've enjoyed the events. "Some tenants, especially those who've lost loved ones, express how the sense of community helps them feel supported. Moments like these make every day a privilege."
